

CALIFORNIA HERITAGE PRESERVATION COMMISSION
ARCHIVIST AWARD OF EXCELLENCE RECIPIENTS

- | | | |
|---|-------------------------------|---|
| 1989 | Sarah Cooper | Southern California Library for Social Studies and Research, Los Angeles |
| "In recognition of exceptional archival performance in administering the Southern California Library for Social Studies Research" | | |
| 1990 | Larry Burgess | A.K. Smiley Public Library, Redlands |
| "In recognition of diligence and determination in the expansion of the library's archives" | | |
| 1991 | Diane Nixon | National Archives-Pacific Sierra Region, Laguna Niguel |
| "In recognition of exceptional archival performance in the development of the Archival and Manuscript Repositories in California directory for the Society of California Archivists" | | |
| 1992 | No award | |
| 1993 | Waverly Lowell | National Archives-Pacific Sierra Region, San Bruno |
| "In recognition of exceptional archival performance and sustained recent accomplishments in developing and promoting archives and their use in California" | | |
| 1994 | Msgr. Francis J. Weber | Archdiocese of Los Angeles and Archival Center San Fernando Mission |
| "In recognition of his diligent efforts in establishing and organizing the Archival Center for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in the San Fernando Mission and for writing numerous publications relating to Ecclesiastical Archives" | | |
| 1995 | Francis Hong | City Clerk of Stockton, Stockton |
| "In recognition of diligence and determination to successfully establish a records management and archives program for the City of Stockton" | | |
| 1996 | Charlene Gilbert Noyes | Archivist of the Sacramento Archives and Museum Collection, Sacramento |
| "In recognition of dedicated professionalism and exceptional public service" | | |
| 1996 | Hynda Rudd | Los Angeles City Records Management Officer |
| "In recognition of exceptional archival performance in compiling and editing Los Angeles and Its Environs in the Twentieth Century: A Bibliography of a Metropolis, 1970-1990" | | |
| 1997 | John F. Lafferty | Preston School of Industry, Ione |
| "In recognition of exceptional archival performance in creating The Preston School of Industry: A Centennial History and in preserving the records of the Preston School of Industry" | | |

- 1998 Lynn A. Bonfield Labor Archives and Research Center,
San Francisco State University
“In recognition of exceptional archival performance in establishing and organizing the Labor Archives and Research Center at San Francisco State University and in preserving the archival records of the northern California labor movement.”
- 1998 Victoria Yturralde California Department of Parks and Recreation
“In recognition of exceptional archival performance in the preservation of the California Department of Parks and Recreation photographic collection, development of a new Guide to California State Parks Photographic Archives, and in raising the awareness and value of archives and the work of archivists among State Parks staff.”
- 1999 No award
- 2000 Helene Whitson San Francisco State University
“In recognition of exceptional performance in establishing and organizing the Bay Area Television Archives and in preserving the archival records of San Francisco State University.”
- 2001 Robert G. Marshall California State University, Northridge
“In recognition of exceptional archival leadership in guiding the L.A. as Subject: The Transformative Culture of Los Angeles Communities Project.”
- 2002 No award
- 2003 No award